RESCHEDULE / CANCEL POLICY

You must change or cancel your test online at <http://gre.etest.edu.cn> or <http://gre.etest.net.cn> no later than ten full days prior to your appointment (not including the day of the test or the day of your request), or your test fee will be forfeited.

If you change your test date, you will be charged a rescheduling fee of RMB¥ 388.00 . If you cancel your test no later than ten full days prior to your test date, you will receive a refund equivalent to half of your original test fee.

Review all reschedule and cancellation policies at www.ets.org/gre/revised_general/register/change.

You may take the GRE revised General Test (computer-based and paper-based) only once every 30 days, and no more than five times within any continuous rolling 12-month period. This applies even if you canceled your scores on a test taken previously.

TEST PREPARATION MATERIALS

Registrants in the U.S., Puerto Rico and Canada are advised to download the free POWERPREP® II Version 1.0 software available at www.ets.org/gre/revised_general/prepare to prepare for the computer-based GRE revised General Test.

The free POWERPREP® II software can be downloaded at anytime from the GRE website at www.ets.org/gre/powerprep2 to help you prepare for the computer-based GRE revised General Test. Additional test preparation information is available at www.ets.org/gre/prepare.

ETS® PERSONAL POTENTIAL INDEX

The ETS Personal Potential Index (ETS® PPI) helps you show graduate and business school programs a more complete picture of your potential for success. It provides schools with more evidence of a broader range of your capabilities - including knowledge and creativity, communication skills and teamwork - than is captured in grades, test scores and recommendation letters. As a GRE revised General Test registrant, you can send four FREE ETS PPI Evaluation Reports. Visit www.ets.org/ppi and get started today.

Sincerely,

NEEA China and ETS GRE® Program
